

Code Of Conduct

Army Institute Of Law

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Contemporary academic space is abound with sagas of prodigious achievers who have risen to the pinnacle of personal and professional success owed in a great measure to discipline in their lives. Discipline is the cornerstone of any progressive modern society and forms the core of our values and enduring beliefs.

Army Institute of Law being a residential facility not only centres towards the academic aspects of its students but also has a responsibility towards the parents for ensuring the safety and security of their wards while their stay at the institute.

The Institute code of conduct has been diligently formulated enriched by the institute pedagogy in order to positively impact the personalities of students and nurture them into women and men of impeccable integrity.

The manual contains certain guidelines aimed at educating the students and parents about the rules and regulations on the campus. Together we hope to foster an environment of camaraderie and Espirit de Corps in the institute which will promote individual and collective growth in order to help students realise their full potential and achieve their goals.

Chairman
Army Institute of Law, Mohali

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Army Institute of Law has carved a niche for itself in the field of quality legal education and is ranked among the top law colleges of the country. The quality and standard that AIL symbolises are a result of the sustained efforts of the Management, Faculty, Staff and students who work with utmost devotion and discipline.

Discipline is the cornerstone of success at Army Institute of Law and the Code of Conduct of AIL is the guiding manual to sensitise and apprise the students of their respective duties, rules and regulations for the smooth conduct of activities on campus. The students are expected to adhere to the same.

Dear students, you will have to develop a tenacity of purpose in life, that will augment your own growth as also transform you into valuable assets for the society. All these qualities can be cultivated with discipline in your conduct and daily lives. I expect you all to develop and mature into young men and women of good character and strength that will train you to face the challenges of profession and life.

I welcome you to AIL family and look forward to a meaningful association with you.

God bless!

Dr. Tejinder Kaur

Principal,
Army Institute of Law, Mohali

MESSAGE FROM THE REGISTRAR

At Army Institute of Law, it is our consistent endeavor to promote a safe and conducive environment for the students to achieve scholastic excellence, develop leadership traits and transform into a well rounded personality. Discipline remains one of the fundamental principles to develop and sustain such an environment along with strong administrative, recreational and co-curricular activities. Therefore, we continuously evolve, refine and upgrade our administrative and discipline strategy in tune with the emerging trends to usher a favorable teaching and learning atmosphere.

The Code of Conduct (CoC) describes in general as well as in specific terms the basic framework of rules, within which the students are expected to conduct themselves while at campus. A careful understanding of CoC will reveal its intent to encourage the students to study, have a healthy living style, imbibe good moral and social values and prevent negative influences of drinking, smoking and falling prey to drug abuse.

We also solicit partnership of students and their parents to collectively achieve our aim of transforming young students into vibrant legal professionals with a sound mind and character.

Colonel SP Singh (Retd)

Registrar,
