

Report: ACPL Research Marathon

Date of Event: 9th - 12th November 2024

Organized by: AIL Centre for Personal Laws (ACPL)

Judges: Dr. Kirandeep Kaur and Mrs. Jasdeep Brar

The AIL Centre for Personal Laws (ACPL) successfully conducted the Research Marathon, an intense, intellectually stimulating competition designed to test students' research skills, creativity, and time management under pressure. The event saw enthusiastic participation and showcased the research capabilities of AIL's students.

1. About the Competition

The Research Marathon was a unique 48-hour challenge where participants were tasked with delving into a legal topic, conducting comprehensive research, and presenting a well-structured paper within a limited time frame. The challenge was structured as follows:

- Topic Release: Saturday, 9th November 2024, at 12 noon
- Submission Deadline: Monday, 11th November 2024, at 12 noon
- Presentation Day: Tuesday, 12th November 2024

Participants received the topic on Saturday noon and were given precisely 48 hours to conduct research, analyze data, and submit their findings in a written paper. Following the submission, participants were allotted 5 to 6 minutes each to present their research in front of the judges on Tuesday, adding an element of presentation skills to the competition.

This marathon tested students' abilities to work under time constraints, prioritize tasks, and deliver high-quality work within a short period. The challenge encouraged collaboration, teamwork, and fostered a competitive yet friendly environment among the participants.

2. Participants

A total of eleven participants showcased their research prowess:

1. Advika Sahai
2. Anushka Dubey

3. Awantika Rawat
4. Divyanshi Sandhu
5. Galina Mutum
6. Priya
7. Reshu Kumari
8. Tanuja
9. Palvi Jasrotia
10. Priyanka Ma'am
11. Aditya Bhatia

Each participant impressed the judges with their unique approaches, insightful analysis, and dedication to their research topics.

3. Winners

After careful evaluation of both the written papers and presentations, the judges declared the winners:

- First Place: Advika Sahai
- Runners-up: Tanuja

The winners distinguished themselves through outstanding research quality, clear articulation, and compelling presentations.

4. Conclusion

The Research Marathon was a resounding success, providing students with an opportunity to refine their research skills and gain valuable experience in a competitive environment. The ACPL congratulates all participants for their hard work and enthusiasm, and the winners for their exceptional performance.

This event highlighted the ACPL's commitment to nurturing the research acumen of law students, inspiring them to push intellectual boundaries and contribute meaningfully to the field of personal laws. The ACPL looks forward to organizing similar events in the future to continue fostering a culture of learning and scholarship.

5. Visual Insights of the Event

RESEARCH MARATHON

Are you passionate about research and ready to push your limits?

The ALL Centre for Personal Laws invites you to participate in a thrilling Research Marathon—a race against time that could earn you a chance to be published in the ALL Personal Laws Review along with other exciting prizes!

Important dates -
Last date for registration: 8 November, 2024
Topic reveal: 12:00 PM, 9 November, 2024
Date of submission: 12:00 PM, 11 November, 2024
Paper presentation: 12 November, 2024

