

SOCIAL JUSTICE WEBINAR

The AIL Centre for Research in Social Sciences initiated the session with its maiden webinar on the 28th of February, 2021. Commemorating the World Social Justice Day, the theme of the webinar was SOCIAL JUSTICE ISSUES IN INDIA- CHALLENGES AND SOLUTIONS. It was a delightful experience with two very learned dignitaries on the panel, Dr. Deviyani Singh and Adv. Navneet Kaur Dhanjal.

Adv. Navneet Kaur Dhanjal is currently practicing at the Punjab & Haryana High Court and is an alumnus of AIL. She is also the Hub Coordinator at Bajaj Allianz General Insurance. Adv. Navneet has to her credit various achievements from the Moot Court Competitions as well. Ma'am covered the topic 'Social Justice and the Indian Constitution- An evolving relationship'.

Our second speaker, Dr. Devyani is an Educator based in Chandigarh and has also worked with the Lok Sabha Secretariat as the Executive Officer in the Committee on External Affairs. She has a double M.A and a PhD. in International Terrorism. Having left no field untouched, she has been awarded the ICSSR open Doctoral Fellowship. Dr. Devyani writes poems and is a story teller at Folks & Tales. Well, the list does not end here. She is also a sports enthusiast with a yellow belt in Taekwondo and has participated in state level competitions in Swimming and Hockey. Mam covered the topic Role of Human Rights Organizations in achieving Social Justice.

With the synergy put in by the Faculty Coordinators, as well the Student Coordinators of ACRSS, the webinar was a massive success. The attendance touched 60 participants with extremely interesting questions following the enlightening lectures delivered by the panellists. The ACRSS will take certainly take up more such endeavours in the future!
