ARMY INSTITUTE OF LAW MOHALI

Q. What sets the Army Institute of Law apart?

A. AIL is a private unaided institute affiliated with Punjabi University, Patiala. It is a stand-alone institute which is competing with the Multi-stream / Multi-disciplinary Institutes/ Universities, which sets it apart from others.

Q. Are there plans of launching new programmes? If yes, which ones?

A. Yes, the Institute plans to introduce B.Com LL.B 5-year programme from the session 2024-25 and increase in the intake strength of BA LL.B from 100 to 120. Keeping in view NEP-2020, the Institute has number of plans which are at the stage of deliberation.

Q. What do your graduates go on to do? How have your placement records been?

A. Fifty percent of the students who want campus placement are placed with reputed corporates/ Law Firms with higher CTC of 16 Lacs. 10-20% students prefer to join litigation. 15% students take coaching for the judiciary/ JAG and 10% join for higher education.

Q. 75% of the BA LL.B seats are reserved for army personnel. Do you get many applicants from within Punjab and other states for the remaining 25 seats?

A. Presently, there are total 100 seats for Army (75%) All India Civil Category (5%) and Punjab Residents Civil Category (20%). Admission to the Army and All India Civil Category seats is through National Level Entrance Test (LET) conducted by the Institute. Details of the applicants applied in session 2023-24 are as under-

- Army 489
- All India Civil Category 330
- For Punjab Residents Civil Category (20 seats), admissions are through online centralized counselling conducted by the university designated by the Government of Punjab every year. As per the verbal information received, nearly 500 candidates applied in the session 2023-24.

Q. You have led the institute for over a decade. How have your seen it change and what are your plans for its future?

A. The Institute has grown as a Centre of Excellence. All ambassadors have brought name of the Institute on National & International Map by their participation and performance in various competitions. Alumni have successfully settled in their profession. They are recruiting AIL students for placements/internships which is a major achievement of the Institute.

My efforts will be to ensure that the institute maintains as the Centre of Excellence for legal education and achieve further heights.
