IMPORTANT NOTICE

Punjabi University has decided to conduct theory exams of final semester / classes with effect from 25.9. 2020. Under this decision, practical exams for these classes are to be conducted by the college principal / head at their own level. Duration to solve the theory paper will be two hours in which students will be required to attempt 50% of the question paper and will also keep in mind that he / she has attempted paper equal to 50% of the total marks only. The University has adopted this procedure in view of the Covid-19 pandemic, so that students can write papers while sitting at home. In this regard required guidelines will be issued by the university shortly. University will upload guidelines related to conduct of exams on their web site from time to time after their finalisation.
