

REPORT ON “JUST A MINUTE: A PICTURESQUE” COMPETITION HOSTED BY AIL CENTRE FOR PERSONAL LAW

Date: 24th September 2024

Time: 2:00 PM

Venue: Classroom Number 3

The AIL Centre for Personal Law successfully organized the event “Just a Minute: A Picturesque” on 24th September 2024. This engaging and fast-paced competition encouraged participants to think quickly and creatively, presenting their ideas on a given picture within just one minute. The event aimed to foster spontaneity, articulation, and critical thinking, making it an exciting experience for both the participants and the audience.

Objective of the Competition

The competition aimed to test the participants' ability to interpret a picture, form coherent thoughts, and articulate them in an organized and engaging manner—all within a span of one minute. The event also served as a platform to enhance the public speaking and observational skills of the students, while encouraging creative thinking and expression.

Judges

The competition was judged by two esteemed faculty members:

- Dr. Amita Sharma,
- Ms. Upagya Sharma.

Both judges brought their extensive academic expertise and understanding of law and communication to assess the participants' performance. They evaluated each speaker based on their clarity of thought, relevance to the picture, time management, and overall delivery.
